SPECIAL ACCESS BROWSING

Saturday, November 17, 9:00am to 10:00am, ICPL

On selected days, the Library will open one hour early for individuals with autism and their families to enjoy the library together in a neutral environment. We will be celebrating DINOvember today. We will have Miss Patty, dino expert for the Putnam Museum in Davenport here to share the most up-to-date dinosaur facts and paleontology discoveries. The Teen Room will be open for teens to play computer and video games. Therapy animals will also be on hand to wander through the library giving support and friendship. The library will also use natural lighting throughout the library to accommodate those with light sensitivity.

DNA INTEREST GROUP DOCUMENTARY SCREENING: THANK YOU FOR COMING

Tuesday, November 27, 6:00pm to 7:30pm Meeting Room A

At the November meeting of the DNA Interest Group - Iowa City, we will have a free screening of THANK YOU FOR COMING, a powerful documentary about friendship, genealogy, DNA, and the meaning of family in today's changing world. Documentary filmmaker Sara Lamm discovered as an adult that she was conceived via sperm donor. With humor and compassion, she hunts for the donor and documents the surprising connections she makes along the way. When she meets a potential half-sibling she gets a break in the case—using DNA and genetic genealogy, the two team up to search together, investigating nature, nurture and their shared drive to know the truth. The film sparks meaningful conversation about parenthood, childhood, creativity, human connection, and love. Visit <https://www.thankyouforcomingmovie.com/> to view the trailer.
